

the Frockens

New album:

Old Willow Tree

out now!

The Frockens (Ben Scott – Guitar, Flute, Vocals and Conor Doyle – Mandolin, Fiddle and Vocals) blend Irish, Australian and American folk styles to tell stories ranging in time and space from convict-era Sydney, to the wilds of the Antarctic, to the taxi queues of recession-era Dublin. They also have a grá for singing ballads and playing traditional tunes.

The Frockens recently launched their debut album "Old Willow Tree" to a packed house in Templeogue, Dublin.

Featured tracks:

Track 10. Green Giants' Arms – a true story of arranged marriage and love of place, set in Connemara, Co Galway.

Track 11. Sunny Ways Familiar – a meditation on cross-cultural love, dedicated to the memory of Lisa Scott.

Track 3. Endurance – the story of Ernest Shackleton. Survival and resilience in the icy, windswept wilds of Antarctica.

Web: www.thefrockens.com

Facebook: www.facebook.com/TheFrockens

Email: thefrockens@gmail.com

Youtube: @TheFrockens